

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The New Women and Babies Hospital Project Name the Crane competition is being conducted by Managing Contractor, Webuild.

By entering this competition, all entrants and their parent/legal guardian agree to the below Terms and Conditions.

1. Eligibility

All children living in Western Australia aged 12 and under can enter.

A parent or legal guardian must complete the consent section of the entry form.

One entry is permitted per child.

Entries must be received by 5.00pm AWST on Friday, 13 November 2026. Late entries will not be accepted.

2. How to enter

Complete the online entry form

OR

Download the entry form, complete, scan and email it to: communications@wlife.au

Optional

Drawings of cranes are encouraged though judging will be based on the proposed name and explanation alone. Drawings cannot be uploaded via the online entry form and will only be accepted via email with a completed entry form attached. Email to:

communications@wlife.au

Your entry must include:

- one name for a crane being used on the New Women and Babies Hospital Project
- a short explanation about why you chose the name
- your name, age, school name (if applicable)
- contact details for a parent or legal guardian.

3. Judging

The judging panel will assess eligible entries for:

- creativity and originality
- connection to the new Women and Babies Hospital or Osborne Park Hospital expansion sites.

Entries must:

- be respectful and appropriate
- not be offensive, discriminatory or defamatory
- not be political or include commercial content
- not reference real people, promote brands or copyrighted characters.

The judging panel's decision is final.

4. Winning entries

By submitting an entry, parents/legal guardian consent to Webuild using the submitted crane name and winner's first name for promotional purposes, including social media and school communications. No surnames or contact details will be published. The State Government and the project's Managing Contractor, Webuild, can display and share the crane names and explanations of winning entries through any of its communication channels, on project signs and any other collateral it chooses. This may include the winning entrants drawing of cranes (if they chose to submit one).

Entrants will not be paid for this use.

5. Use of personal information

Webuild will collect the information requested on the entry form to run and judge the competition and contact winners.

Incomplete entry forms will not be accepted.

All personal information will be used solely for the purpose of administering the competition.

6. Agreeing to Terms and Conditions

In submitting an entry, all entrants and their parent/legal guardian agree to these Terms and Conditions.
